St. Louis Lands Rams; Now It's In Fans' Hands

By Jim Thomas
Of the Post-Dispatch Staff

Coming soon to a stadium near you: the St. Louis Rams.

From the ashes of the Arizona Cardinals, expansion rejection and an 0-and-16 season with the New England Patriots, here comes the Rams.

The long-awaited announcement that the Los Angeles Rams intend to move to St. Louis was made Tuesday at the America's Center convention complex downtown.

It wasn't just an announcement. It was part celebration, part pep rally, part Georgia Frontiere — the St. Louis and Rams owner Georgia Frontiere — the St. Louis native who is bringing her beloved Football League team home to her hometown — under the dome.

St. Louis has taught me a great deal," Frontiere told a ballroom packed with media, civic leaders, Rams officials and fans. "I grew up here. All of my teachers, they instilled in me the principles of honesty, integrity, persistence and the will to succeed.

"Then she turned to the pair in center front row. "I'm so proud to be able to come home after this long journey in my life."

With Mayor Freeman Bosley Jr. and County Executive George "Buz" Westfall peering over her shoulder, Frontiere signed a pencil-sized "NFL Relocation" agreement.

Of course, it wasn't the real thing, but it served the purpose for the cheering onlookers. Frontiere turned, faced the crowd and enjoyed a hug-fest.

Forwards went off. A band played. Streamers fell from the

GEORGIA FRONTIERE

Georgia Frontiere, the Owner and Chairman of the St. Louis Rams, will always remember 1995 as one of the happiest years of her life...she brought the Rams to her home town, one of the great "Homecomings" in NFL history.

Georgia is committed to providing pro football entertainment at its best and at the same time is dedicated to countless charitable endeavors. She always knew St. Louis was a great football city, but never knew how great. The fans, the community and the people of the city have been fantastic. The new domed stadium and the new St. Louis Rams' training facility will be the best in the National Football League and Georgia will do everything in her power to make the Rams the finest team in the NFL.

She has put together a first-rate organization, bringing in Rich Brooks as Head Coach and Steve Ortmayer as the team's new Vice President of Football Operations.

As Georgia enters her 17th season as the Rams' Chief Executive Officer, she is proud of her team's record, which includes reaching the playoffs eight times, the Conference Championship three times and the Super Bowl once. Under her leadership, the Rams have had a tradition of winning and with the support of the people of St. Louis, the Rams will carry on that tradition.

Charity and social consciousness also have been and will continue to be a high priority to Georgia Frontiere, who holds a Doctor of Philanthropy from Pepperdine University. She is on the Board of Directors of the American Air Museum in Britain and has recently been appointed to the Boards of the St. Louis Symphony and the St. Louis Zoo.

Georgia is a proud recipient of the prestigious Ellis Island Medal of Honor, citing her for "community involvement and having greatly contributed to our national identity while preserving the distinct values and heritage of her ancestors." She shared the award with, among others, General Norman Schwarzkopf.

The needs of children are of particular interest to Georgia, who is on the Board of Directors of the Los Angeles Boys' and Girls' Club as well as a Benefactor of the St. Jude Children's Research Center in Memphis. Also, the Crohn's and Colitis Foundation of America and the American Foundation for AIDS Research National Board as well as St. John's Ambulance Brigade in Great Britain. In 1991, she displayed her concern for youth by making a substantial donation to the Fulfillment Fund, an organization that involves more than 2,000 students who are selected as having college potential.

Recognized internationally as a Patron of the Arts, Georgia is on the Board of the Los Angeles Music Center Opera, the Golden Horseshoe of the Metropolitan Opera and the Boards of New York's Collegiate Chorale and the William Hall Chorale. She is also a member of the NFL Alumni Board of Governors and is working with this group to establish a retirement home for ex-football players, coaches and staff.

Georgia is the mother of two children, son Dale Rosenbloom (married to the former Kathleen Melville) and Lucia Rodriguez (married to Lupe Rodriguez). She has five grandchildren.

STAN KROENKE

Vice Chairman
1st Year with Rams

St. Louis's quest for professional football took a critical turn in October, 1993, when Stan Kroenke accepted leadership of the Gateway Football Partnership. Kroenke, who built a reputation as one of the nation's top developers of shopping malls and apartment buildings, solidified the St. Louis effort, which eventually was rewarded by the arrival of the Rams.

April 12, 1995, was a memorable day for Kroenke and the Rams. The National Football League officially approved the Rams' relocation to St. Louis and Stan as a member of Rams' ownership on that date. Kroenke will take an active role with the organization in his position as Vice Chairman.

Stan is chairman and owner of the Kroenke Group, a real estate investment and development company with offices throughout the United States and headquarters in Columbia, Missouri.

Kroenke has other business interests that include director positions with Mid America Realty, Inc., a New York Stock Exchange-listed Real Estate Investment Trust in Omaha, Nebraska, and the Boone County National Bank in Columbia. Stan serves as a trustee of the College of the Ozarks and on the Strategic Development Board of the University of Missouri School of Business. Kroenke also is a trustee of the Missouri Basketball Hall of Fame and is a member of the board of the Central Bancompany in Jefferson City.

Stan has undergraduate and graduate degrees from the University of Missouri and is an active supporter of Mizzou athletic programs, including the Dan Devine Club, named for the former Tigers football coach.

E. Stanley Kroenke was born in Cole Camp, Missouri, and grew up in Mora, Missouri. Stan and his wife, Ann, have a daughter, Whitney, and a son, Josh. They reside in Columbia, Missouri.

JOHN SHAW

President

16th Season with Rams

John Shaw's importance to the Rams' organization and his influence in the National Football League was dramatically underscored over the last two years as Shaw guided the Rams through the awesome challenge of relocation to St. Louis.

Shaw worked continuously with representatives from St. Louis and the NFL and was a central figure in bringing professional football back to the Missouri city. During this critical period Shaw continued to oversee all aspects of the Rams' operation as Georgia Frontiere's primary advisor on financial, business, and legal matters.

Shaw has become one of the most respected executives in the NFL since joining the Rams in 1980. He has been actively involved in shaping the direction of the NFL as a member of the NFL Management Council Executive Committee and was an important figure in the enactment of a Collective Bargaining Agreement that brought labor peace to the NFL in 1993.

A native of New York who moved to San Diego as a youngster and attended high school there, Shaw is a member of the State of California Bar as a Certified Public Accountant. He was graduated from the University of San Diego with a bachelor's degree in accounting.

Shaw continued his education at New York University School of Law, from which he received a Juris Doctor Degree, and practiced law in California prior to joining the accounting firm of Arthur Andersen & Co. in New York.

Shaw is a member of the Council of Trustees of LEARN and the Fraternity of Friends of Los Angeles Music Center. John and his wife, Michele, reside in Los Angeles. They have a daughter, Alexandra.

JAY A. ZYGMUNT

Senior Vice President

14th Season with Rams

Zygmunt works closely with Rams President John Shaw in overseeing all aspects of the Rams' operations. He also serves as the club's principal negotiator of player contracts and manages the club's salary cap established by the National Football League's 1993 Collective Bargaining Agreement. Currently he serves as the team's liaison to both the National Football League management Council and the National Football League Players' Association in the area of player relations and other collective bargaining matters.

Zygmunt, who joined the Rams in 1982 as General Counsel, was named Vice President in 1988 and Senior Vice President in 1991.

A native of Chicago, Zygmunt was graduated from the University of Notre Dame in 1973 with a bachelor's degree in business administration and is a member of the Sorin Society. He then earned his Juris Doctor degree from Northwestern University School of Law, where he is a member of the Whigmore Society.

Zygmunt is both a Certified Public Accountant and a member of the Illinois bar. Prior to joining the Rams he was associated with Arthur Andersen & Company and had practiced law.

Zygmunt is a member of the American Bar Association's Forum Committee on the Entertainment and sports Industries, and the Sports Lawyers Association. He currently splits his residence between California and Missouri.

STEVE ORTMAYER

Vice President/Football Operations
21st NFL Season
First with Rams

Ortmayer has one of the most diverse backgrounds in professional football. This is Steve's 21st consecutive year in the NFL in a career punctuated by coaching, scouting, drafting, and administrative positions.

Ortmayer was named vice president of football operations by the Rams Jan. 13, 1995. He is responsible for the Rams' football operations, including player acquisition, and oversees the team's college and pro personnel departments and the collegiate draft, as well as being a principal figure in player contract negotiations.

A native of Painesville, Ohio, Steve attended Vanderbilt University in Nashville, Tennessee, and LaVerne College in LaVerne, California. He was graduated from LaVerne in 1967 with a degree in English and Physical Education.

Ortmayer began an eight-year collegiate coaching career in 1968 as a graduate assistant at Colorado and coached the offensive or defensive line for the Buffaloes from 1969-73. After coaching the offensive line at Georgia Tech in 1974, Steve came to the NFL in 1975 as special teams coach for the Kansas City Chiefs. He became director of football operations for the Oakland Raiders in 1978. Steve also coached special teams for the Raiders from 1979-86. He was director of football operations for the San Diego Chargers from 1987-89. Ortmayer held a similar post with the Raiders since 1990 and additionally was their special teams coach. Steve is married (Merylee) with sons Beau and Cody. The Ortmayers reside in Ladue.

BOB WALLACE

Vice-President/Administration
15th NFL Season
First with Rams

Bob Wallace concluded a whirlwind first half of 1995 with the Philadelphia Eagles when he returned to St. Louis to join the Rams as Vice-President of Administration at the start of training camp.

Wallace, who lettered in football as a running back at Yale University, has a long association with the NFL and with professional football in St. Louis. He was a training camp assistant with the St. Louis Cardinals as a teenager in 1971 and from 1982-91 served as the Counsel to and chief contract negotiator for the Cardinals while representing the St. Louis law firm of Guilfoil, Petzall and Shoemake.

Wallace was Assistant to the President and General Counsel of the Eagles. In that capacity, he played a vital role earlier this year as the Eagles signed 17 free agents, including Rickey Watters of the San Francisco 49ers and Kevin Turner of the New England Patriots.

A native of New York City who attended Woodmere Academy in Long Island as a high school student, Wallace served on former NFL commissioner Pete Rozelle's staff as a legal intern and has taught classes on sports law as a professor at the St. Louis University School of Law.

Wallace earned his law degree from Georgetown University in Washington, D.C., after being graduated from Yale. As an undergraduate Wallace was the coordinator for Black Athletes at Yale and currently serves on a number of boards, including the Corporate Alliance for Drug Education, the Sports Lawyers' Association, Philadelphia Division of the United Negro College Fund and is a member of the Sports and Entertainment Division of the American Bar Association. Bob also has served on the Executive Committee for the young Lawyers division of the Metropolitan Bar Association of St. Louis and received a certificate of recognition for law and education projects from the St. Louis Public schools.

Bob and his wife Julie, a native of Murphysboro, Illinois, have two sons, Grant (2/2/93) and Eric (6/10/94).

MARSHALL KLEIN

Vice President-Media and Community Relations

13th Season with Rams

Marshall Klein's duties encompass several areas in the Rams' organization. He serves as the liaison between Georgia Frontiere and various Rams departments and is closely involved with the numerous charities supported by and in which the Rams' owner participates.

Klein oversees the marketing, public relations and entertainment departments and represents the team at numerous charitable and civic events. The native of Pittsburgh, who moved to Los Angeles as a youngster, was employed 21 years by the Los Angeles Times, the last 15 as Sports Editor of the Orange County Edition, before joining the Rams in May, 1983.

Klein has been a lecturer at several Southern California universities, among them Cal State-Fullerton, Cal State-Long Beach and Cal State-Dominguez Hills.

Klein makes his home in Tustin, California with his wife Katie, and their children, Philip, Michael, Benjamin and Molly.

RAMS FACT:

Merlin Olsen has been selected to more Pro Bowls than any other player in NFL history. The Hall of Fame defensive tackle was invited to 14 consecutive Pro Bowls from 1962-75. Former Ram guard Tom Mack played in 11 Pro Bowls, the fourth most in league history and the most by an offensive guard. Hall of Fame guard John Hannah (New England) is the closest with nine appearances. There are only 13 players who have been selected to 10 or more Pro Bowls. The Rams, Cowboys and Colts are the only teams to have more than one player receive 10 or more invitations.

RICH BROOKS

Head Coach
4th NFL Season
Third with Rams

Rich Brooks, who took the University of Oregon to its first appearance in the Rose Bowl in 37 years and was named national collegiate coach of the year in 1994, is the St. Louis Rams' first football coach and the nineteenth in Rams history.

Rams owner Georgia Frontiere appointed Brooks to the position Feb. 10, 1995, after Brooks concluded an 18-year career as the head coach at Oregon, where he tenaciously built the Ducks' program into one of national recognition, culminating with a 9-3 record, a Pacific 10 Conference championship in 1994, and a New Year's Day Rose Bowl appearance against Penn State.

The 1995 NFL draft may have spoken volumes about Brooks's tenure at Oregon and the resolute manner in which he developed teams that competed against schools that were located in significantly larger population bases and that had superior recruiting opportunities. Oregon, which was tied with Penn State in the Rose Bowl with three minutes remaining in the third quarter, had three players selected in the draft, all on the second day, all in the sixth round or later. Three Penn State players were among the first nine selected in the draft.

"Rich had great success bringing the Oregon program into national prominence under difficult circumstances," said Frontiere, who first met Brooks when Rich was an assistant coach with the Rams in 1971-72. "I am impressed by his loyalty, stability and work ethic."

"I'm going to be who I am, because I believe that conceptually, the things that make people successful don't change from college to the NFL," said Brooks when discussing his new position with writer Bernie Miklasz of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch. "I just kind of believe in hard work and preparing yourself to win."

Modest, understated, Brooks nonetheless is known as a fiery competitor who earned the respect of his peers as a collegiate player and coach. Brooks was a quarterback and defensive back under head coach Tommy Prothro at Oregon State. He intercepted five passes as a senior in 1962. Upon graduation in 1963, Brooks was assistant freshmen coach for the Beavers while earning his master's degree in education.

Brooks taught and coached one year at Norte Del Rio High in Sacramento, California, then rejoined the Oregon State staff as defensive line coach from 1965-69. He was linebackers coach at UCLA in 1970, special teams coach for the Rams in 1971-72, was defensive coordinator at Oregon State in 1974, coached defensive backs and special teams for the San Francisco 49ers in 1975, and returned to UCLA as linebackers coach in 1976.

Rich Brooks was a Rams assistant coach in 1971-72.

Brooks was appointed head coach at football-impoverished Oregon in 1977 and embarked on a difficult task.

The Ducks were 24-49-4 in Brooks's first seven seasons and 67-60 in his last 11. The Ducks made their first bowl appearance in 26 seasons in 1989 and became back-to-back bowl participants for the first time in 1990. Brooks was the first Oregon coach to have a third bowl team in 1992.

Oregon was ranked ninth in the country in 1994, their highest position in college football polls in 30 years.

Brooks was Pacific 10 coach of the year in 1979 and repeated the honor in 1994. Brooks also received the College Football Writers' Bear Bryant Award in 1994 as the NCAA Division I coach of the year. He was college coach of the year as honored by The Sporting News and ESPN.

The playing surface at Autzen Stadium in Eugene, where the Ducks play their home games, was named Rich Brooks Field this spring. It was a fitting tribute for the conclusion of Brooks's tenure, which also included three years as the Ducks' athletic director, 1992-94.

Richard L. Brooks was born Aug. 20, 1941, in Forest, California. He competed in football, basketball, track, and boxing at Nevada Union High in Grass Valley, California. Rich and his wife Karen are the parents of sons Denny (3/20/58) and Brady (5/3/70) and daughters Kasey (4/8/64) and Kerri (5/6/66).

JOHN BECKER

Director of Player Personnel
16th NFL Season
Fourth with Rams

Becker joined the Rams' scouting department after spending three years as the offensive coordinator of the Seattle Seahawks (1989-91). In the four seasons that Becker has spearheaded the Rams' college scouting, the club has had two draft choices go to the Pro Bowl (Sean Gilbert, Jerome Bettis). Becker served as quarterbacks coach from 1985-86 and as offensive coordinator from 1987-88 for the Indianapolis Colts. Becker broke into the NFL with the Philadelphia Eagles in 1980 as a special assistant for quality control, and coached running backs (1981-82) and receivers (1983) before moving to the Buffalo Bills as quarterbacks coach in 1984. Becker began his coaching career at Crespi High in Encino (1965), while an undergraduate at Cal State-Northridge and entered the collegiate ranks as head freshman coach at UCLA in 1970. Becker attended Notre Dame High in Sherman Oaks. Becker has two daughters, Kristine and Karen, and one son, John.

JACK FAULKNER

Administrator of Football Operations/ Director of Pro Personnel
41st NFL Season
31st with Rams

Faulkner's responsibilities with the Rams as director of pro personnel are representative of six decades (1949-94) in football by one of the game's most astute minds.

Faulkner came into the NFL in 1955 as secondary coach for the Rams after six seasons at the University of Cincinnati. Since first joining the Rams 40 years ago, Faulkner has coached or coordinated all areas of defense and was the offensive backfield coach of the 1979 Rams team that won the NFC championship and played the Pittsburgh Steelers in Super Bowl XIV. Faulkner was a head coach and general manager of the Denver Broncos and assistant coach for the San Diego Chargers, New Orleans Saints, Minnesota Vikings, and Rams and was the director of player personnel for New Orleans and has been director of pro scouting and Assistant General Manager for the Rams.

The native of Youngstown, Ohio, was American Football League Coach of the Year in 1962 with the Broncos and secondary coach of the Chargers in 1961 when that group set a standing professional record with 42 pass interceptions in 14 games.

Faulkner was inducted into the Youngstown Hall of Fame in 1991 and also is a member of the Curbstone Coaches Hall of Fame in Youngstown, Ohio. He was recipient of the Orange County Sports Hall of Fame's Lifetime Achievement and Good Guy awards and was 1991 Humanitarian of the Year, as chosen by Triple X Armenian, a group of charity-conscious Armenian-American businessmen in Orange County that Faulkner assisted in raising funds for the Orangewood Home for Abused Children.

The Jack Faulkner golf tournament each year benefits the American Diabetes Association. Faulkner also is honorary chairman of another tournament that benefits the Make-a-Wish Foundation of Orange County. Faulkner also is vice president of the NFL Alumni, Orange County chapter, and is a member of the Orange County Sheriff's Advisory Council.

Faulkner and his wife, Betty, make their home in Costa Mesa and have two children, Cathy and Jon.

DOUG WILKERSON

Executive Assistant /Player Relations
22nd NFL Season
First with Rams

Doug Wilkerson is in his first season with the Rams as Executive Assistant/Player Relations and assistant in Football Operations. A 15-season guard in the NFL, Wilkerson joined the Rams this spring after serving on the Raiders' coaching staff for five seasons (1990-95). A former first-round draft choice of the Houston Oilers in 1970 (14th overall), Wilkerson was traded to San Diego the following year and he played in 204 games in 15 seasons before retiring in 1985. He blocked for NFL Hall of Fame quarterback Dan Fouts during the "Air Coryell" years as the Chargers displayed one of the most dangerous offensive attacks in NFL history. Wilkerson earned several All-Pro honors, was a starter on the AFC squad in two of three consecutive trips to the Pro Bowl (1980-82) and was voted by his teammates as San Diego's Lineman of the Year seven times in his career. Wilkerson earned Little All-America honors as an offensive lineman at North Carolina Central, where he earned degrees in physical education and elementary education. A native of Fayetteville, N.C. (3/27/47), Wilkerson played for the E.E. Smith High Golden Bulls in Fayetteville. Doug is married (Debbie) and has three daughters.

JOHNNY ROLAND

Assistant Head Coach/Running Backs
17th NFL Season
First With Rams

Former All-Pro St. Louis Cardinals running back Johnny Roland returns to the Gateway City as the assistant head coach/running backs for the Rams. Roland, 52, is a 17-year veteran of NFL coaching who will be responsible for the Rams' ground attack. Roland spent the past two seasons with the New York Jets as running backs coach. Roland made an immediate impact on the Jets' running game in 1993 as New York ranked 4th in the AFC and 9th in the NFL with a 117.5-yard average, and led the AFC in time of possession with 32:16. Under Roland, Jets RB Johnny Johnson led the team in rushing with a career-high 931 yards.

Prior to joining the Jets, Roland tutored Chicago Bears running backs for 10 seasons (1983-92). During Roland's tenure, Chicago led the NFL in rushing four times, finished second twice and third once. Led by Walter Payton and Neal Anderson, the Bears were the top NFL rushing team of the 1980's, averaging 153.4 yards per game. Before taking a four-year hiatus from football to enter private business in 1978, Roland had coaching stints with Philadelphia (1976-78), Green Bay (1974) and the University of Notre Dame (1975).

Roland had a successful playing career with the St. Louis Cardinals from 1966 to 1972, finishing his career with the New York Giants in 1973. A fourth-round choice of the Cardinals in 1965 prior to his senior year at Missouri, Roland earned NFL Rookie of the Year honors in 1966. Roland also was drafted by the Jets in the first round of the 1965 American Football League future draft but opted to sign with St. Louis. Roland finished his career with 3,750 yards rushing, 1,420 yards receiving, 34 touchdowns, and two Pro Bowl appearances (1967-68).

A native of Corpus Christi, Texas, (5/21/43) Roland was a two-way starter at the University of Missouri at running back and defensive back. Johnny, who owns radio stations KIRL in St. Louis and WAPZ in Montgomery, Alabama, has two sons, Johnny, 30, and James, 25, and a daughter, Cynnamon, 18.

WILLIE SHAW

Defensive Coordinator/Cornerbacks
Eighth NFL Season
First with Rams

Willie Shaw, who coached the secondary for the 1994 AFC champion San Diego Chargers, is in his first season as defensive coordinator for the Rams.

The 51-year-old Shaw has been an NFL assistant coach for seven years. Prior to joining San Diego in 1994, Shaw was the Minnesota Vikings' secondary coach from 1992 to 1993 and spent four seasons with Detroit, coaching defensive backs from 1985 to 1987 and outside linebackers in 1988. The Vikings' secondary enjoyed two of its most productive seasons under Shaw's direction. Minnesota led the NFL in interceptions with 28 in 1992 and tied for second with 24 in 1993.

This will be Shaw's second stint as a defensive coordinator and also his second as a member of Rich Brooks's coaching staff. He was defensive coordinator at Stanford University for three years from 1989-91 before joining Dennis Green in Minnesota. He served one season with Brooks at Oregon as linebackers coach in 1979.

Shaw began his coaching career at San Diego City College (1970-72) before moving to Stanford (1974-76), Long Beach State (1977-78), Oregon and Arizona State (1980-84). Shaw earned All-America honors as a defensive back during his senior year at the University of New Mexico. JACK REILLY

Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks
Sixth NFL Season
First with Rams

Jack Reilly is in his first season as Offensive Coordinator and quarterbacks coach for the Rams. Reilly, a 28-year coaching veteran, was offensive backs coach for the Los Angeles Raiders in 1994. Reilly joined the Raiders after spending four years (1990-93) as an assistant coach for the San Diego Chargers. Reilly made the jump into the NFL from collegiate coaching in 1990, working closely with the Chargers' passing game.

Reilly served five seasons (1985-89) as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Utah. Reilly guided one of the nation's premier passing attacks, leading the nation in 1988 in passing offense with 395.9 yards a game and in total offense with 546.8 yards a game. Utah ranked second in the nation in passing in 1989 and third in 1987. Utah quarterback Scott Mitchell set 10 NCAA records, five conference records, and 24 school marks in his collegiate career under Reilly.

Reilly also coached five years at El Camino Junior College in Inglewood, Ca. (1980-84), serving as head coach his final three seasons and posting a 19-10 record. Reilly spent 12 years coaching at Beverly Hills High in Los Angeles.

A native of Boston, Reilly played quarterback for the Culver City High Centaurs in Culver City, California. Jack continued his career at Washington State, Santa Monica College, and Long Beach State, where he earned Little all-America and all-Conference honors. Reilly and his wife have three children.

NICK ALIOTTI

DON (DEEK) POLLARD

Defensive Line
Fourth NFL Season
First with Rams

Pollard coached the defensive line at Boston College last year. The Eagles set a school and Big East conference record with 47 quarterback sacks, and added eight more in the Aloha Bowl for a season total of 55. Defensive end Mike Mamula, the 1995 first-round selection of the Philadelphia Eagles, led the Big East Conference with 13 sacks.

Pollard joined Boston College following a four-year stay at Central Florida, where he tutored linebackers and the defensive line for two years each. During Pollard's tenure, Central Florida qualified for the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs twice, (1990 and 1994) and set a school record with 58 quarterback sacks in 1993.

Pollard served as a special assistant to Cleveland Browns' head coach Bud Carson in 1989 and coached defensive backs for the New York Giants from 1979 to 1981. Deek spent three years in the USFL with the Denver Gold and Arizona Wranglers. He served as defensive backs coach for Denver in 1983 and helped lead Arizona to the USFL championship in the same role in 1984. Pollard was promoted to defensive coordinator for the Wranglers the following season.

Pollard, a 1961 graduate of Western Illinois, began his college coaching career at his alma mater in 1971, coaching defensive backs for three seasons. He guided the secondary at Florida State from 1974-75 before becoming the defensive coordinator at Oklahoma State from 1976-78. Pollard helped the Cowboys claim a Big Eight co-championship in 1976.

A native of Road House, Il., Pollard was a halfback for Western Illinois and helped the Leathernecks post the school's only perfect (9-0) season in 1959. He became head coach at Pittsfield High School following graduation and led his team to an Illinois state record of 54 consecutive consecutive wins and was named Illinois' High School Coach of the Year in 1970. He ended his career at Pittsfield with a record of 55-4-3. Deek and wife Michelle are parents of two daughers Dana and Brunna and grandparents of Karlie Jo.

DAN RADAKOVICH

Offensive Line
18th NFL Season
Fourth with Rams

An 18-year veteran of the NFL, Radakovich, 59, rejoined the Rams as offensive line coach. Radakovich coached in three Super Bowls, two with Pittsburgh (1975 and 1976), and one with the Rams (1979). Radakovich, who spent last season as defensive coordinator at Robert Morris College in Coraopolis, Pennsylvania, coached the Rams' offensive line from 1979 to 1981. In 1979, Dan showed a young offensive lineman, Jackie Slater, the work ethic that can prolong a productive NFL career.

Radakovich served five years with the Steelers (1974-77 as offensive line coach; 1971 as defensive line coach). Dan was also an assistant with the New York Jets (1985-88), Minnesota (1984), Denver (1983) and San Francisco 49ers (1978). With the Pittsburgh Steelers of the 1970s, Radakovich transformed a small, under-sized group of offensive linemen into World Champions. A native of Kennywood, Pa., Radakovich attended Penn State, where he was a center-linebacker from 1954-56. He was an assistant coach for the Nittany Lions for 13 years (through 1969), tutoring the linebackers and helping gain Penn State the distinction of "linebacker university." "Rad" is credited with the development of All-Americas Jack Ham and others. In 1971 Dan joined the NFL with Pittsburgh as the defensive line coach. Dan (his last name is prounounced rad-a-KO-vich) and his wife Nancy have a son Dan, and daughters Lisa, Leslie, and Lori.

JOHN RAMSDELL

Offensive Assistant/Quality Control
First season with Rams

John Ramsdell is one of four former Oregon coaches who followed Rich Brooks to the Rams. He will serve as the club's quality control coach for offense and as an offensive assistant after coaching receivers at Oregon for the last 12 seasons. In 1993, Ramsdell coached two players who caught 50 passes in the same season (Derrick Deadwiler and Cristin McLemore) for the first time in school history. One of six coaches to spend at least 10 seasons with Brooks at Oregon, Ramsdell was instrumental in the development of NFL players Lew Barnes, Terry Obee, Ronnie Harris, J.J. Birden and Tony Hargain, who was with the Rams in 1993.

Ramsdell began his coaching career at San Francisco State in 1976, working with receivers for two seasons. He then served as recruiting coordinator, special teams assistant, and assistant secondary coach at Long Beach State in 1978 before moving to Pacific the following season. During his four year tenure at Pacific, Ramsdell worked with the secondary, kicking game, tight ends and receivers before joining the Oregon Staff in 1983.

A native of Lancaster, Pa. (8/16/54), Ramsdell lettered at running back at Manheim Township High. He continued his football career at Springfield College in Massachusetts, where he was a two-year letterman at running back. John and his wife Brenda have a son and a daughter.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN 1995

- The Rams playing their 801st game on opening day.
- NFL football returning to St. Louis on Sunday, September 10, as the Rams host NFC Western Division rival New Orleans at Busch Stadium. It will mark the first NFL football game in St. Louis since December 13, 1987, when the Cardinals defeated the New York Giants 27-24.
- The Rams traveling to play the expansion Carolina Panthers in their home opener on September 17.
- The Rams winning their 400th regular-season victory. The Rams own a 398-349-20 all-time record in the regular-season.
- The Rams celebrating the 50th anniversary of their 1945 championship season. The Rams defeated Washington, 15-14, on December 16 to claim the first of two World Championships.
- The Rams increasing their four game winning streak at Busch Stadium.
- The Rams improving on their 6-1 record at Busch Stadium.
- The Rams extending their streak of 76 consecutive games played without an overtime period, the longest in the NFL. The last time the Rams played in an overtime period was on October 7, 1990.
- Jerome Bettis moving into the Rams' top 10 all-time rushing list. Bettis enters the season with 2,454 career rushing yards.Within reach are Jon Arnett (2,852) in tenth, Willie Ellison (2,901) in ninth, Cullen Bryant (3,119) in eighth, Wendell Tyler (3,266) in seventh, Paul (Tank) Younger (3,296) in sixth, Les Josephson (3,407) in fifth and Dan Towler (3,493) in fourth.
- Jerome Bettis joining Eric Dickerson as the only two players in Ram history to rush for 1,000 yards in each of their first three seasons. In the process, Bettis would become only the third Ram to rush for 1,000 yards three years in a row overall. Lawrence McCutcheon and Dickerson are the only others, doing so four times each.
- Shane Conlan becoming the first Ram since 1985 to post back-to-back 100-tackle seasons. Jim Collins and Carl Ekern were the last to do it in 1984 and 1985.
- Marv Cook extending his streak of 96 consecutive games played. The six-year veteran has yet to miss a game in his NFL career.
- Troy Drayton extending his streak of 32 consecutive games played. Drayton has not missed a game in his two-year career.
- Jessie Hester extending his streak of 78 consecutive games with at least one catch, the sixth longest among active receivers.
- Jessie Hester reaching the 6,000 receiving yard barrier for his career with 549 yards.
- Jessie Hester reaching the 400 career reception mark with 57 receptions.
- Chris Miller reaching 20,000 for his career with 3,830 passing yards.
- Jackie Slater playing his 260th NFL career game with two games. for his career. Currently, Slater is fourth on the NFL's list of games played with 258 and is six games away from passing Jan Stenrud (263) for third.
- Jackie Slater becoming only the fourth player in NFL history to play 20 seasons.
- Tony Zendejas needs 17 field goals made to reach 200 for his career.

Pro: Sure-handed tight end with excellent pass route skills...has versatility to play on or off line of scrimmage...signed with Rams 5/1/95...orginally joined Rams as free agent in 1991 and spent two years before being traded to Dallas (10/5/93) for sixth round draft choice (Ronald Edwards)...1993: Had one reception for four yards in three games with Dallas...placed on injured reserve (right foot) 11/10 for remainder of season. 1992: Played in 15 games and started two for Rams...had 34 catches for 324 yards and two touchdowns...posted season-best five receptions for 57 yards at San Francisco 10/4. 1991: Played 11 games and started six...finished third on team with 35 receptions for 410 yards and two touchdowns...missed final four games with fractured right fibula suffered against San Francisco 11/25...had career-high six receptions for 82 yards and two touchdowns versus San Diego 10/13...made career-long 27-yard reception against Raiders 10/20...underwent surgery to repair leg 11/26. 1990: Member of Rams practice squad after being signed as free agent out of Stanford.

College: Finished Cardinal career with 79 catches for 802 yards and eight touchdowns...had career-high 45 receptions for 391 yards as senior...also played one season on Stanford baseball team.

Personal: Born James G. Price in Englewood, N.J...played baseball, football and basketball at Montville High...selected Associated Press All-State second team in football...played tailback and outside linebacker as senior...led baseball team to state finals as pitcher...single.

Jim's NFL future changed when Dennis Green became the head coach at Stanford in 1989. The Cardinal scrapped the run and shoot offense and went to a pro-style set, making the tight end a threat on offense. Jim received an even bigger break when Stanford's offensive coordinator, Ron Turner, called his brother Norv, former tight end/wide receiver coach with the Rams, to inform him of Jim's skills. Jim was signed as a free agent and caught 69 passes in two seasons with the Rams.

Robert weighed 280 pounds when he checked into his first training camp as a rookie in 1991. The Rams wanted to use him at defensive tackle and had him split time there his first two seasons. Robert prefered playing defensive end, as he did at Mississippi State, and encouraged the coaching staff to make the switch when he lost 22 pounds prior to the start of the 1993 season.

Personal: Born Kevin Louis Carter in Miami, Fl...earned Parade All-America honors as senior at Lincoln High in Tallahassee...rated one of top 10 prep players in nation by Dallas Morning News and one of top two inside linebackers by Super Prep...set school record with 27 tackles in game...named Big Bend Conference Defensive Player of Year...also played basketball...graduated with 3.75 grade point average and earned Student-Athlete of Year at Lincoln...member of Lincoln's Crime and Drug Prevention Task Force...President of Fellowship of Christian Athletes at Florida...majored in Zoology...plays saxophone and golf...brother Bernard plays linebacker for Green Bay Packers...plans to be Pharmacist after football career...single...resides in Tallahassee, Fl.

Kevin has not always been a picture perfect athlete. He was cut from the Lincoln High School junior varsity football team as a freshman, because he was short, fat and uncoordinated. Kevin played the saxophone in the band instead. After sprouting up from 5-9 to 6-2, Kevin made the football team as a sophomore and later established a school-record with 27 tackles that still stands today. Playing the sax is now just a hobby.

Steve started playing the guitar when he was 12, and began writing original songs in1994. Ironically, it was a song he wrote for a friend's band that convinced him to form his own group. Steve wrote the song "I Feel Fine" for Rain Convention, but was so encouraged by what he produced that he formed Pet the Fish. Since NCAA rules prohibit scholarship athletes from holding a paying job during the school year, Steve's band played three charity shows before they were able to play in local clubs for money. Pet the Fish recorded a demo tape in May for several interested record labels.

1994 SEASON

1994 SEASON REVIEW

Game #1
RAMS 14, Arizona Cardinals 12
Anaheim Stadium, September 4, 1994
Sunny, 87 degrees

The Rams defeated the Arizona Cardinals 14-12 in front of 32,969 fans. The Rams opened the scoring in the first quarter when Todd Lyght collected a Larry Centers fumble and ran 74 yards for a touchdown. The Cardinals cut the lead to four when Greg Davis kicked a 37-yard field goal with 5:45 left in the second quarter. The Cardinals made it 7-6 at the half when Davis hit a 34-yard field goal on their next possession, capping a 10-play, 25-yard drive.The Rams struck first in the second half, thanks again to their defense. Marquez Pope intercepted a Steve Beuerlein pass 56 seconds into the second half, allowing the offense to start at the 45 yard line. On the next play, Arizona's James Williams was called for pass interference on Willie Anderson, giving the Rams first and 10 from the Cardinal 16. Two plays later, Jessie Hester extended his reception streak to 63 straight games when he took a Chris Miller pass 22 yards to the Arizona 1-yard line. Jerome Bettis finished the three play drive with a one-yard touchdown run, which gave the Rams a 14-6 lead. Arizona put together a 12-play, 81-yard drive on their third possession of the second half and capped it with a three-yard pass from Beuerlein to Centers, trimming the lead to just two. The Cardinals failed on a two-point conversion and the Rams held on for a 14-12 victory. The Rams defense recorded four sacks and forced three turnovers, while limiting Arizona to just 128 yards passing and 3.0 yards per play.

Game #2
Atlanta Falcons 31, RAMS 13
Georgia Dome, September 11, 1994
Indoors

The Rams were defeated by the Atlanta Falcons 31-13 at the Georgia Dome. The Falcons jumped out to a 14-0 lead behind the arm of quarterback Jeff George. In his home debut, George hit Terrence Mathis on a two yard roll out pass for a 7-0 lead with 7:58 left in the first quarter. Atlanta struck again on their next possession when George found Andre Rison with a 16-yard touchdown pass. The Rams did drive to Atlanta's 1-yard line, but failed to score. Jerome Bettis, who rushed for a game high 102 yards on 24 carries was stopped on three straight attempts from the goal line. Chris Chandler mishandled the snap on a would-be 19-yard field goal attempt by Tony Zendejas and the Rams came up empty. They did get it back in the final minutes. Chris Miller threw his first touchdown pass as a Ram when he found rookie Isaac Bruce on a 34-yard deep route. It happened on fourth and 17 from the Atlanta 34. The Falcons built a 17-7 lead at the half when Norm Johnson booted a 48-yard field goal as time expired. The second half was all Atlanta, thanks to three Rams' turnovers. Darnell Walker cashed in on one Miller mistake, by grabbing a tipped pass out of the air and racing 44-yards for touchdown and a 24-7 lead. They made it 31-7 early in the fourth when Rison and George hooked up from 16 yards out again. Chris Chandler and Willie Anderson produced the Rams' final score with a 41-yard touchdown pass with 4:07 left. Their first two-point conversion attempt failed.

Game #3

San Francisco 49ers 34, Rams 19

Anaheim Stadium, September 18, 1994
Sunny, 70 degrees

San Francisco defeated the Rams for the eighth straight time with a 34-19 victory in front of 56,479 fans at Anaheim Stadium. Steve Young led the charge, throwing for 355 yards and two touchdowns with Jerry Rice having 11 receptions for 147 yards and one score. Young also ran for two scores. The 49ers struck first by taking the opening drive 62 yards in nine plays, capped by Young's connection with WR John Taylor from three yards to make the score 7-0 with 10:26 left in the first quarter. Rams' rookie WR Chris Brantley returned the following kickoff 33 yards to the Rams' 41 yard line, setting up a 59-yard scoring march that ended with QB Chris Miller's four-yard touchdown pass to TE Troy Drayton to tie the game at seven. San Francisco RB Dexter Carter gave his team excellent field position after returning the following kickoff 39 yards to the 49er 47. Five plays later, K Doug Brien's 33-yard field goal gave San Francisco a 10-7 lead. The Rams evened the score for the second time with 12 minutes left in the half after K Tony Zendejas kicked a 25-yard field goal to knot the game at 10. Young, who completed 31 of 39 passes, drove his team 77 yards in 1:30 to score on a one-yard quarterback sneak at the end of the half, giving the 49ers a 17-10 lead at intermission. Brien kicked his second field goal of the game, a 47 yarder, to make the score 20-10 with four minutes left in the third quarter. Young hit WR Jerry Rice from one-yard out to increase the lead to 27-10. Miller, who suffered a pinched nerve in his shoulder,was replaced by QB Chris Chandler in the fourth quarter. Zendejas booted his second field goal of the day, a 35-yarder, making the score 27-10 with nine minutes left in the game. Young scored on a one yard run and RB Jerome Bettis scored on a two-yard run to account for the final margin.

Game #4

RAMS 16, Kansas City Chiefs 0

Arrowhead Stadium, September 25, 1994
Cloudy, 76 degrees

The Rams evened their record to 2-2 with a 16-0 win over Kansas City in front of 78,184 at Arrowhead Stadium. It was the first time in 16 years that Joe Montana had been shutout as a starting NFL quarterback. The Rams defense intercepted Montana three times and held the Chiefs to just 72 yards rushing. Jerome Bettis spearheaded a ball control offense that held it for 34:07 compared to 25:53 for the Chiefs. Bettis carried the ball 35 times for 132 yards—his third straight 100-yard rushing performance. Chris Chandler made his first start at quarterback for the Rams and played mistake-free football. Chandler completed 13 of 21 passes for 207 yards and one touchdown. The Rams defense made the first big play of the game by stopping the Chiefs on fourth and 13 at the Rams' 34-yard line on the opening drive. The Rams responded by putting together a 13-play, 54-yard drive that resulted in a Tony Zendejas 29-yard field goal. After three plays and out for Kansas City, Chandler and Willie Anderson connected on a 72-yard touchdown to give the Rams a 10-0 lead. The ball was tipped by Jessie Hester, but gathered by Anderson for his second touchdown of the season. Following the kickoff, Roman Phifer intercepted a Joe Montana pass intended for Marcus Allen and the Rams took over at the Kansas City 20. Tony Zendejas hit a 23-yard field goal five plays later to give Los Angeles a 13-0 lead with 1:17 remaining in the first quarter. Zendejas added a third field goal from 28 yards in the third quarter to round out the scoring. The Rams defense stopped two Kansas City drives in the fourth quarter with interceptions by Marquez Pope and Keith Lyle at their own goal line. Bettis handled the ball on 16 straight plays to close out the third and fourth quarters and allow the Rams to run out the clock. The Rams offensive line received a game ball for keeping both Derrick Thomas and Neil Smith sackless, while also leading the ground game to 155 yards.

Game #5
Atlanta Falcons 8, RAMS 5

Anaheim Stadium, October 2, 1994
Sunny, 77 degrees

The Falcons defeated the Rams with an 8-5 come-from-behind win in front of 34,599 fans. In a game that saw both starting quarterbacks leave with injuries, Atlanta got the best of the battle of the backups. Bobby Hebert replaced Jeff George, who left with a concussion in the third quarter, and spoiled a second consecutive shutout by the Rams' defense with a fourth quarter score. The Rams scored first when Sean Gilbert broke through the line and sacked Jeff George for a safety with 6:33 left in the second quarter. The Rams made it 5-0 on their first possession of the second half when Tony Zendejas capped a 16-play, 76-yard drive with a 28-yard field goal. The Rams' defense held the Falcons scoreless for three quarters before Hebert put together the game-winning rally. The Falcons went on an 11-play, 89-yard drive that culminated in a 13-yard touchdown pass from Hebert to Ricky Sanders with 3:14 left to play. The Falcons converted on their two-point conversion when Hebert found Terance Mathis in the middle of the end zone. The Rams had one last opportunity and drove the ball to the Falcon 27-yard line before the mistakes settled it. An offensive pass interference penalty cost them 10 yards and an illegal procedure call added five more yards. On first and 25 from the 42, Kevin Ross intercepted a Tommy Maddox pass, intended for Isaac Bruce, that killed the threat. Hebert finished the game by completing 10 of 14 passes for 122 yards and a touchdown. Maddox replaced Chris Chandler, who left in the second quarter with a severly sprained left ankle. Maddox was 7-for-15 with two interceptions and no scores. The loss spoiled another outstanding defensive effort by the Rams. They registered a season-high five sacks and limited the Falcons to just 81 yards rushing. Jerome Bettis posted his fourth consecutive 100-yard rushing performance, carrying the ball 29 times for 117 yards. The streak of four in a row tied his personal high and left him two short of matching Eric Dickerson's club record of six straight set in 1984.

Game #6
Green Bay Packers 24, RAMS 17

Lambeau Field, October 9, 1994
Cloudy, 47 degrees

The Packers overcame a 14-point halftime deficit to defeat the Rams, 24-17, in front of 58,911 fans at Lambeau Field. In a game of two halves, the Packers dominated the second and scored 21 unanswered points to even their record at 3-3. The Rams fell to 2-4. The Rams owned the first half thanks to an aggressive defense and accurate passing attack. Cornerback Darryl Henley set up the Rams' first score when he intercepted a Brett Favre pass and returned it 20 yards to the Green Bay 16. Chris Miller found Troy Drayton four plays later for a two-yard touchdown and a 7-0 lead. The Packers responded with 15-play, 66-yard drive that ended with Chris Jacke kicking a 25-yard field goal. It was all Rams the rest of the first half. They started the second quarter with their own 66-yard drive. On the seventh play of the drive, Miller rolled out to the right and found Drayton in the back of the end zone for a four-yard score and 14-3 lead. The Rams built it to 17-3 when Tony Zendejas nailed a 37-yard field goal with 6:05 left in the second quarter. While the Rams dominated the first half, the Packers took control in the second. They did not allow the Rams a single first down on their first five possessions of the second half and were able to get back into the game. Favre made the score 17-10 when he hit Sterling Sharpe on an eight-yard slant with 8:58 left in the third. After forcing the Rams to go three plays and out, Robert Brooks collected a Sean Landeta punt, slipped through a tackle and raced 85-yards for the tying touchdown. Green Bay took their first lead with 12:06 left in the fourth quarter when Edgar Bennett crossed the goal line from a yard out. The Rams had a chance to get even in the final minutes but faltered. Willie Anderson drew a 39-yard pass interference penalty to the Green Bay 10 yard line. Miller hit Jessie Hester for eight yards to the Packer two, but a pair of penalties pushed the Rams back to the 17. On third and goal, Lenny McGill intercepted Miller's pass intended for Anderson and the Packers won.

Game #7
RAMS 17, New York Giants 10

Anaheim Stadium, October 16, 1994
Sunny, 76 degrees

The Rams snapped a two-game losing streak by defeating the New York Giants in front of 40,747 fans. The Rams built a seven point lead in the first half with a strong passing attack and then relied on their defense and ground game to hold on in the second half. Chris Miller threw for 145 yards and two touchdowns in the first two quarters to put the Rams ahead from start to finish. The Ram defense set up the first score of the game when Joe Kelly intercepted a Dave Brown pass and returned it 31 yards to the New York 21 yard line. Miller gave the Rams a 7-0 lead when he connected with rookie Isaac Bruce on a 19-yard touchdown with 10:41 left in the first. The Giants evened the score two possessions later. Rodney Hampton capped a five-play, 47-yard drive when he broke through the right side of the line for a 27-yard score. The Rams responded with a 74-yard drive on the following possession, which was sparked by Jerome Bettis. The NFL's second leading rusher touched the ball four times on the six-play drive, including a season-high 34-yard reception to the Giant 32 yard line. Bettis and Miller combined for 20 yards rushing on the next three plays setting them up at the 12. On second and seven, Miller found Troy Drayton for a 12-yard touchdown to give the Rams a lead that they would never relinquish. The Giants took the ensuing kickoff and marched 74-yards on 13 plays before settling for a David Treadwell 24-yard field goal. The Rams matched the three-pointer and took a 17-10 halftime lead when Tony Zendejas connected from 22-yards out with 3:22 left before the break. The second half was all defense and Bettis. Both teams went scoreless in the second half, but Bettis allowed the Rams to control the clock in the fourth quarter. Bettis carried the ball 14 times for 42 yards in the final period and finished with 88 yards on 30 carries. The Giants had one last chance to pull it out, but Brown was intercepted by Anthony Newman with 1:06 remaining in the game.

Game #8
New Orleans Saints 37, RAMS 34

Superdome, October 23, 1994
Indoors, 77 degrees

In a game that was supposed to feature Saints quarterback Jim Everett against his former team, it was the special teams that made the game special. The two teams combined to break four NFL records. New Orleans jumped out to an early 14-0 lead and never trailed. The Saints marched 77 yards on the game's first possession and capped the nine-play drive with a Derek Brown three yard run. Everett, who completed his first eight passes, put the Saints up by two touchdowns when he connected with Wesley Walls from 30 yards out with 2:04 left in the first quarter. The Rams answered on the following possession when Chris Miller found Isaac Bruce for a 19-yard touchdown on the first play of the second quarter. After a Morten Andersen field goal, the Saints had a scoring opportunity stolen when Toby Wright forced Lorenzo Neal to fumble at the two-yard line. Wright scooped up the loose ball and raced 98 yards for the score and a new team record. Hughes responded with a 92-yard touchdown return on the ensuing kickoff to give the Saints a 24-14 lead. Hughes gave New Orleans their biggest lead of the game, 37-20, on the last play of the third quarter when he weaved through the Ram special teams for a 98-yard touchdown, his second of the game which tied an NFL record. He broke two other marks for most kickoff return yardage and most combined return yardage. The Rams rallied to make it close down the stretch. Johnny Bailey scored on a seven-yard draw play with 8:38 left to make it 37-27. Then Robert Bailey caught everybody offguard when he picked up a loose punt in the endzone and returned it an NFL record 103 yards to trim the lead to 37-34 with 4:08 left in the game. The Rams had one last possession with 23 seconds left, but Chris Chandler's pass was intercepted.

Game #9
RAMS 27, Denver Broncos 21

Anaheim Stadium, November 6, 1994
Sunny, 74 degrees

The Rams made it 2-0 against AFC opponents when they defeated the Denver Broncos in front of 48,103 fans.The Rams scored touchdowns on their first two possessions and built a 24-3 lead in the second half. John Elway rallied the Broncos. After forcing a Denver punt on the first series, the Rams put together an eight-play, 57 yard drive that was capped off by a Jerome Bettis one yard run.They made it 14-0 with 14:56 left in the second quarter when Howard Griffith scored the first touchdown of his career on a three-yard pass from Chris Chandler. Jason Elam kicked a 42-yard field goal with 4:56 left to make 14-3. Tony Zendejas answered with his 11th straight field goal from 35 yards out to give the Rams a 17-3 lead at the half. The Ram defense limited the Broncos to just 60 yards total offense in the first half, including 40 yards passing by Elway. The Rams took their biggest lead of the game on the first possession of the second half when Chandler found Willie Anderson with a 30 yard touchdown pass. Denver added another field goal by Elam with 6:09 in the third before Elway got hot. Glyn Milburn collected a 20 yard pass from Elway with a minute gone in the fourth quarter and Shannon Sharpe scored the two-point conversion on a shovel pass to make it 24-14. Zendejas made it 12 field goals in a row with 8:36 left to give the Rams a 13 point lead. Elway responded by producing a nine-play, 80 yard drive that finished with a 12 yard pass to Derek Russell. Trailing 27-21, the Broncos and Elway had one last chance with 2:28 left and the ball at the Ram 49-yard line. However, the Ram defense surrendered only three yards on four plays to hold on for the win.

Game #10
Los Angeles Raiders 20, RAMS 17

Anaheim Stadium, November 13, 1994
Sunny, 72 degrees

The Rams were defeated by the Raiders before the first sellout crowd at Anaheim Stadium since November 22, 1992. Jeff Jaeger kicked a pair of field goals in the fourth quarter to hold off the Rams' rally in the final period. The Raiders took a 7-0 lead with 4:36 left in the first quarter when Jeff Hostetler found Andrew Glover on a 27-yard pass in the front corner of the endzone. The Rams tied the score on the following possession thanks to Willie Anderson. The seven-year veteran made three receptions for 86 yards on the drive, including a 22-yard slant from Chris Chandler for a touchdown. It capped the Rams' longest drive of the season at seven plays for 83 yards. The Raiders put together an 11 play, 74-yard touchdown march to regain the lead at 14-7. Raghib Ismail broke free on a 10-yard pass from Hostetler with 9:07 left in the half. Tony Zendejas snapped a string of 12 straight field goals when he missed a 41-yarder, leaving the score 14-7 at the half. The Raiders built the lead to 10, 17-7, when Jeff Jaeger connected from 44 yards out with 12:35 remaining in the game. The Rams matched the Raider three-pointer five minutes later when Zendejas converted from 22-yards away. Following a Chris Miller interception, the Raiders pushed the lead to 10 again when Jaeger made a 47-yarder with 2:18 left. Miller directed a seven-play, 71-yard drive in 51 seconds and made it 20-17 with a four-yard pass to Todd Kinchen. Tim Brown recovered the onside kick and the Raiders ran out the clock. The Raiders improved their record to 6-2 in the crosstown series, including 2-0 at Anaheim Stadium.

Game #11

San Francisco 49ers 31, RAMS 27

Candlestick Park, November 20, 1994
Cloudy, 53 degrees

Steve Young and Jerry Rice teamed up to help the 49ers defeat the Rams before 62,774 fans and an ESPN audience. It was the fifth time that the Rams lost by a touchdown or less and their ninth straight loss to San Francisco. The 49ers ran 24 more plays and held a 14:57 edge in time of possession, but still had to rally in the final two minutes to win. San Francisco took a 7-0 on their first possession when Steve Young found John Taylor on a seven-yard slant, capping an eight-play drive. Despite losing quarterback Chris Miller for a series with a knee injury, the Ram offense responded behind Tommy Maddox. The three-year veteran completed three of four passes to set up a Tony Zendejas 31-yard field goal. The 49ers scored again on their next possession, a 67-yard drive that was finished on a seven-yard pass from Young to Rice. The Rams cut the lead to 14-6 when Zendejas banked a 27-yard field goal off the left upright with 12:12 left in the second quarter. San Francisco built their lead to 21-6 at the half when Young hit Rice from five yards out to complete a 12-play, 92-yard drive. The Rams battled back with big plays in the second half. Todd Kinchen ignited the rally with a 44-yard touchdown run on a reverse to make it 21-12. After a Doug Brien 28-yard field goal, the Rams put together a six play, 73-yard drive that produced big play number two. Willie Anderson shook Deion Sanders and Miller hit him with a 50-yard touchdown pass to make it 24-19. Miller struck again at the beginning of the fourth quarter when he scrambled out of trouble and found Jessie Hester in the end zone for a 22-yard score and 27-24 lead. The Rams recovered a Rice fumble with just over six minutes remaining but could not run out the clock. Young engineered a 67-yard march and on the 10th play he hit Rice on a 18-yard pass with 1:56 left for their third touchdown connection of the night. The Rams drove to the 49er 38, but ran out of downs with 31 seconds left

San Diego Chargers 31, RAMS 17

Jack Murphy Stadium, November 27, 1994
Clear, Sunny, 70 degrees

Darrien Gordon came up with two big plays to help spark a second half rally for the Chargers that erased a 14-6 halftime deficit.The Rams dominated the first half but failed to hold onto the momentum and the lead in the second. After a scoreless first quarter, the Rams struck first when Chris Miller hooked up with Jessie Hester on a 40-yard touchdown pass for a 7-0 lead. John Carney connected on a 31-yard field goal with 6:58 left in the second to pull the Chargers within four. Miller responded by engineering an eight-play, 61-yard drive that culminated in a 12-yard scoring strike to tight end Troy Drayton with 2:51 left before intermission. Carney hit a 48-yard field goal with 59 seconds left to make it 14-6 at the half. The Rams went three plays and out on their first possession of the second half. It was on the fourth play when the Chargers got back into it. Gordon collected a Sean Landeta punt and broke it 75 yards for San Diego's first touchdown. Ronnie Harmon punched in the two-point conversion and it was tied 14-14. Following another Landeta punt, the Chargers put together a 10-play drive that ate up 4:31 on the clock and resulted in a 10-yard touchdown pass from Stan Humphries to Harmon. It gave the Chargers their first lead at 21-14. The Rams had a chance to get even by marching to the Charger seven yard line, but Gordon stepped in front of a Miller pass to Willie Anderson in the back of the end zone to spoil the scoring threat. Carney booted another field goal with 9:58 remaining in the game to give the Chargers a 24-14 advantage. Tony Zendejas added a field goal of his own to cut the lead to seven at 24-17 with 3:48 left. After forcing the Chargers to punt, the Rams would have one last chance with just over two minutes to play. Three Miller completions set the Rams up at their own 44 with a minute to play, but on the next play Sean Vanhorse intercepted Miller and returned it 50-yards for the game-winning touchdown.

Game #13
New Orleans Saints 31, RAMS 15

Anaheim Stadium, December 4, 1994
Cloudy, 70 degrees

The Rams lost their fourth consecutive game and finished 0-6 in the NFC West with the 16-point loss to New Orleans. The Rams committed four turnovers that led to 24 New Orleans points, including all three touchdowns in the second quarter. The Saints took a 7-0 lead with 3:41 left in the first quarter when rookie Mario Bates broke free for a 26-yard run. The Saints capitalized on a Todd Kinchen fumbled punt return by putting together a two-play, 44-yard drive to start the second quarter. Bates made it 14-0 with an 11-yard touchdown run with 14:55 left before the half. The Rams cut the lead in half on the next possession when Chris Miller found Kinchen on a 24-yard touchdown pass. After intercepting a Jim Everett pass at their own 5-yard line, the Rams fumbled again at the 11, setting up another New Orleans score. Bates recorded his third touchdown of the game from a yard out to make it 21-7 with 1:52 left in the second. The Rams drove to the New Orleans 40-yard line on the next possession before Miller was stripped of the ball at midfield. Everett completed a four-play drive with a 30-yard scoring pass to Michael Haynes for a 28-7 halftime lead. The Saints added a Morten Andersen 46-yard field goal following Kinchen's second fumbled punt late in the third quarter. The Rams cut the lead to 31-15 when Jerome Bettis hauled in a 5-yard pass from Miller, the first touchdown reception of his career. Bettis added a two-point conversion, but the Rams could not get any closer.

Game #14

Tampa Bay Buccaneers 24, RAMS 14

Tampa Stadium, December 11,1994
Sunny, Windy, 70 degrees

The Buccaneers used three big plays by Charles Wilson to help defeat the Rams in front of 34,150 fans. It was the fifth consecutive loss by Los Angeles. Wilson finished with four receptions for 176 yards and two touchdowns. He set up Tampa Bay's first score with a 53-yard catch and run to the Ram 26. Michael Husted nailed a 20-yard field goal four plays later for a 3-0 lead in the second quarter. On Tampa's next possession, Wilson broke loose for a 71-yard touchdown reception from Craig Erickson to give the Bucs a 10-0 lead with 9:04 left in the half. The Rams answered with a seven-play, 77-yard drive to cut the lead to 10-7. Chris Chandler found Troy Drayton on a 22-yard pass with 4:52 remaining in the second. The Bucs used up the next four minutes and traveled 80 yards to take a 17-7 halftime lead. Erric Rhett ran eight yards for the touchdown. After a scoreless third quarter, the Rams got back into it when Jessie Hester pulled down a 12-yard pass from Chandler with 12:42 remaining. The Ram defense forced the Bucs to punt for the fourth straight time in the second half and the offense took over at its own 20 with 10:11 left. The Rams chewed up 8:20 with a 13-play drive and had a chance to tie the game with 1:51 remaining. However, Charles McCrae got a hand on Tony Zendejas' 48-yard field goal attempt to eliminate the threat. Wilson put the game out of reach when he collected a 44-yard pass from Erickson nine seconds later.

Game #15

Chicago Bears 27, RAMS 13

Soldier Field, December 18,1994
Partly Sunny, 34 degrees

The Chicago Bears rallied from a seven-point deficit and handed the Rams their sixth straight loss. The Rams led by a touchdown twice in the second quarter, but could not control the run oriented Bears. Chicago out-gained the Rams 163-37 on the ground, led by Raymont Harris, who ran for a game-high 92 yards and a touchdown. The Rams took a 7-0 lead on the first drive of the game. They marched 66-yards in 11 plays and punched it in with a Chris Chandler one-yard plunge. The Bears cut into the lead with a 41-yard field goal by Kevin Butler with 1:04 left in the first quarter. The Rams got three points back on the following possession. Chris Chandler found Willie Anderson on a 53-yard pass to set up a Tony Zendejas 18-yard field goal with 12:31 left in the half. The Bears put together a pair of touchdown drives before halftime to take a 17-10 lead. Steve Walsh connected with tight end Keith Jennings for a three-yard score that capped a 10-play, 67-yard drive. Harris' two-yard touchdown run put the Bears up for good with 21 seconds left in the half. Chicago built the lead to 20-10 with 2:09 left in the third quarter when Butler converted from 30-yards out. The Rams cut into Chicago's lead with 9:10 left to play, but had to settle for 21-yard field goal rather than a Troy Drayton touchdown. Drayton collected a four-yard pass from Chris Miller in the end zone, but was ruled to have trapped it. The Bears put the game out of reach when Lewis Tillman completed a 59-yard march with a one-yard touchdown run. The loss dropped the Rams to 0-3 against the NFC Central.

Game #16
Washington 24, RAMS 21

Anaheim Stadium, December 24, 1994
Cloudy, 65 degrees

One seven-game losing streak ended, but another continued when the Rams lost to the Redskins. Washington held the Rams scoreless in the second half to overcome a four-point halftime deficit and snap their seven-game losing streak. The Rams finished by losing their seventh straight game. Los Angeles took an early 7-0 lead on Washington's first possession. After failing to score on offense, the Ram defense put the first points on the board. Robert Bailey deflected a Heath Shuler pass and Anthony Newman picked it off and ran 22-yards for the score with 7:44 left in the first quarter. The Redskins tied the score midway through the second quarter when Reggie Brooks squeezed into the end zone from two yards out. The Rams responded with an eight-play, 67-yard scoring drive on the following possession. Todd Kinchen hauled in a Chris Miller pass, broke two tackles and ran 34-yards for a 14-7 lead with 4:19 left in the half. After forcing Los Angeles to punt three minutes later, Brian Mitchell found a hole in the Rams' special teams and returned it 78-yards for a touchdown. Martin Bayless intercepted a Miller-to-Johnny Bailey pass on the next play from scrimmage to set up a Chip Lohmiller 37-yard field goal and Washington's first lead of the game at 17-14. However, with 57 seconds left on the clock, there was enough time for the Rams to take the lead right back. The Rams completed a six-play, 60-yard march when Miller found rookie Jermaine Ross in the corner of the end zone with just four seconds left. It was the first catch of Ross' career and gave the Rams a 21-17 halftime lead. Washington surged ahead with 49 seconds left in the third quarter when Shuler hit tight end John Jenkins on a one-yard roll-out pass. The Rams had a chance to tie with four minutes remaining in the game, but Tony Zendejas' 33-yard field goal attempt sailed wide right.

RAMS PRO HALL OF FAMERS

1963 — Earl (Dutch) Clark, Coached Rams (1939-42). Played QB for Portsmouth Spartans (1931-32) and Detroit Lions (1934-39). All-NFL six times and three time NFL scoring champion. Led Detroit to their first NFL championship (1935). Coached Lions (1937-38). Played college football at Colorado College.

1965 — Bob Waterfield, QB (1945-52). Guided Rams to two NFL Championships (1945 and 1951). Only rookie QB to lead team to NFL title (1945). Threw two touchdowns against Washington to win 1945 Championship, 15-14. Three-time All-Pro selection. Voted to two consecutive Pro Bowls (1950-51). Received Joe F. Carr Trophy as NFL Most Valuable Player in 1945. Named NFL Played of the Year in 1950 by Washington D.C. Touchdown Club. Selected to NFL's All-Decade Team for 1940's. Led NFL in passing (1951). Played college football at UCLA.

Bob Waterfield

1967 — Daniel Reeves, Owner of Rams (1941-71). Teams won two World Championships (1945 and 1951). First to integrate football in modern era with signing of Kenny Washington and Woody Strode a year before major league baseball accepted Jackie Robinson. Developed scientific scouting system that is practiced universally and established current television formula for NFL. Was major contributor to AFL-NFL merger. Also owned Jersey City Giants of American League (1939). NFL Executive of the Year by Sporting News (1955). Graduate of Georgetown University.

1968 — Elroy (Crazylegs) Hirsch, WR/RB (1949-57). Ranks second on Rams all-time receiving yards list with 6,289 and third with 343 receptions. Caught touchdown passes in 11 straight games in 1950-51. Led Rams to NFL championship with 17 touchdown receptions in 1951. Averaged 51.2 yards per catch on those 17 touchdowns. Finished with 55 touchdowns to rank second on Rams career list. 1936 Under head coach Damon Wetzel's guidance, Cleveland Rams post second best record in American Football League with a 5-2-2 mark.

1937 On Feb. 13, the National Football League grants a Cleveland franchise to Homer Marshman and Associates, a prominent group of local businessmen. Hugo Bezdek is named head coach. As the league's rookie franchise, Rams finish with a 1-10-0 record. Bob Kelley is named radio play-by-play announcer at start of season.

1938 Assistant coach Art Lewis takes over team after three losses and Rams win three of remaining seven games.

1939 Earl "Dutch" Clark becomes head coach. Rams hit .500 mark for the first time with 5-5-1 record. Parker Hall joins team as rookie tailback and wins Joe Carr Trophy as NFL's official Most Valuable Player. Hall becomes first Rams' player to be named first team All-Pro.

1940 Team drops back to 4-6-1 record. Johnny Drake, powerful Ram fullback, is named to first team All-NFL.

1941 Daniel F. Reeves and Fred Levy, Jr. purchase Rams in June and hire Billy Evans as general manager. Team wins first two games but drops next nine to finish in cellar. Guard Riley Matheson becomes first Rams' offensive lineman to be named to first team All-Pro.

1942 Evans resigns before 1942 season. Charles "Chile" Walsh replaces Art Lewis as assistant coach. Lt. Reeves and Major Levy depart to enter armed forces. Bob Kelley is named club secretary. Team finishes 5-6-0. Riley Matheson is named first team All-Pro for second straight season

1943 Clark resigns. Chile Walsh is named head coach, but NFL grants Rams permission to suspend operations for one season because of wartime difficulties. Reeves buys out Levy. Riley Matheson is lone All-Pro selection.

1944 Chile Walsh becomes general manager and appoints Buff Donelli as head coach. Pickup team finishes 4-6-0. Riley Matheson collects All-Pro honors for fourth consecutive season.

1945 Donelli joins military service. Walsh names his brother, Adam Walsh, as head coach. Third round draft choice (a future) Bob Waterfield from UCLA joins team as T-formation quarterback and leads Rams to 9-1-0 season for first divisional title in team's history. On icy field, Rams defeat Washington Redskins, 15-14, at Cleveland for world title. Waterfield becomes first player to receive unanimous vote for official NFL Most Valuable Player award. Walsh is named coach of the year. Riley Matheson, Jim Benton, Eberle Schultz and Jim Gillette receive All-Pro honors. Eddie Kotal joins team as chief scout and Bill John begins 29-year tenure as business manager.

1946 Reeves moves franchise to Los Angeles early in the year. After disappointing 6-4-1 season, both Walshes resign. Rams sign end Woody Strode and back Kenny Washington, two African-Americans, a year before Jackie Robinson breaks color barrier with Brooklyn Dodgers.

1947 Reeves assumes duties of general manager. Bob Snyder is named head coach with Joe Stydahar as new assistant. Team is talent-heavy but injury-ridden in 6-6-0 season. Offensive linemen Riley Matheson and Dick Huffman are selected to All-Pro team. Reeves sells part interests to former partner Levy and to Edwin and Harold Pauley and Hal Seley.

1948 Clark Shaughnessy joins staff as advisory coach. On Sept. 3, Snyder resigns and Clark Shaughnessy becomes head coach. Team wins four of last five to post 6-5-1 mark. Fred Naumetz and Dick Huffman make All-Pro.

1949 Team wins first six games then hangs on to win first divisional title since moving west. Heavy rain holds down L.A. crowd as Philadelphia Eagles skid to 14-0 win over Rams in NFL title game. Rookie Norm Van Brocklin joins team and gives Rams top-notch one-two quarterback punch. Elroy Hirsch has fine rookie year. Rams have five players selected to All-Pro team—Dick Huffman, Tom Fears, Fred Naumetz, Bob Waterfield and Milan Lazetich.

1950 NFL absorbs AAFC, leaving Rams as lone pro team in Los Angeles after four years of two-league existence. In February, Stydahar becomes head coach, replacing Shaughnessy. Club opens new offices on Beverly Boulevard. Bill Granholm begins 18-year tenure as equipment manager. Team sets 22 league records in rolling to conference title tie. Waterfield and end Tom Fears lead playoff win over Bears, 24-14, but following week in Cleveland, Lou Groza's late field goal stops Rams' title hopes, 30-28. Waterfield is named NFL Player of Year by Washington D.C. Touchdown Club. Fears, Dick Huffman and Dick Reinhard receive All-Pro recognition.

1951 Rams win third straight conference title on final day of season, then defeat Cleveland at the Coliseum, 24-17, on 73-yard pass, Van Brocklin to Fears, for first world title since moving to Los Angeles.Running backs Tank Younger and Dan Towler join Stan West and Larry Brink on All-Pro team.

1952 After team loses three straight preseason games and drops league opener by big score, Stydahar resigns. He is replaced as head coach by Hamp Pool. Team loses two of next three, but wins last eight to tie for conference title. Rams lose playoff in Detroit. Rams trade 11 players to Dallas for rookie Les Richter, who then enters Army for two years. Waterfield retires. Dan Towler, Larry Brink and Stan West are named to All-Pro team for second straight year, while Herb Rich makes it for first time.

1953 Club co-owner Harold Pauley passes away. Team compiles 8-3-1 record, losing three games by total of eight points to finish third in conference. Rams defeat world champ Lions in both games. Elroy Hirsch, Dan Towler, Andy Robustelli and Don Paul named All-Pro.

1954 Bonus choice Bill Wade and tradee Les Richter both join Rams as rookies two years after going from college into military service. Norm Van Brocklin earns NFL Player of Year by Washington D.C. Touchdown Club. Team has disappointing 6-5-1 mark. Split end Bob Boyd is lone Ram to be named All-Pro. All assistant coaches resign. Pool soon follows suit.

1955 On Jan. 26, Rams hire Sid Gillman, head coach at University of Cincinnati, to replace Pool. Fine defensive year and clutch field goal kicking by Richter give team hard-fought 8-3-1 record for conference title. Cleveland wins title game at Coliseum 38-14. Duane Putnam, Norm Van Brocklin, Ron Waller, Andy Robustelli, Les Richter and Will Sherman give Rams six All-Pro selections.

1956 In form reversal, team loses five consecutive early-season games and finishes in cellar tie with 4-8 record. Duane Putnam and Les Richter earn All-Pro honors for second straight year.

1957 Ram owners name former Ram publicist Pete Rozelle as general manager. Team loses squeakers on road to 49ers and Lions, finishing 6-6-0, but only two games behind conference leaders. Guard Duane Putnam receives All-Pro recognition.

1958 In preseason trade, Van Brocklin goes to Eagles. Bill Wade sets many Ram passing marks en route to 8-4-0 year. Three Rams, Duane Putnam, Del Shofner and Jon Arnett, are first team All-Pro choices.

1959 Team has general letdown and many injuries for worst season since 1937, finishing 2-10-0. Ollie Matson, acquired in big trade, is workhorse at fullback. On last day of season, Gillman and staff resign.Del Shofner and Duane Putnam are repeat choices to All-Pro team.

1960 Following death of Bert Bell, Pete Rozelle is named NFL commissioner. Elroy Hirsch replaces Rozelle as Rams general manager. Bob Waterfield is named Ram head coach. Team finishes 4-7-1.

1961 Rams trade Bill Wade, Del Shofner, John Guzik for Zeke Bratkowski, Lindon Crow and 1962 first draft choice, which makes it possible to draft both Roman Gabriel and Merlin Olsen. Revamped Rams finish strongly after slow start, but still show 4-10-0 deficit. Split end Jim Phillips makes first team All-Pro.

1962 Rams lose four of first five games by narrow margins, then show only occasional surges of success en route to 1-12-1 year. Dick Bass provides bright spot with All-Pro selection. Waterfield resigns after eighth game. Harland Svare named interim head coach. On Dec. 27, in closed auction, Reeves reacquires control of Rams, purchasing full interests of co-owners Pauley, Levy, Seley and Bob Hope.

1963 Reeves sells 49% interest in Rams to Gene Autry, Bob Reynolds, Leonard Firestone, Paul A. O'Bryan, Robert Lehman, J.D. Stetson Coleman and Joseph A. Thomas. Svare is retained. Les Richter retires before season. After 0-5 record, Gabriel is reinstated as starting QB and plays last nine games without relief, guiding team to 5-4 mark and season record of 5-9-0. Rosey Grier is acquired from New York Giants and joins Deacon Jones, Merlin Olsen and Lamar Lundy to form original Fearsome Foursome.

1964 Rams sign 10-year pact to play in "new look" Coliseum's "stadium-within-a-stadium." Fourteen rookies make the season squad. Club finishes fifth with 5-7-2 record. Deacon Jones records first 20-sack season in league history with 22. Merlin Olsen is selected to first team All-Pro.

1965 After winning only one of first 10, Rams take three of last four against top two teams in each conference, but Svare is dismissed. Deacon Jones and Merlin Olsen receive first team All-Pro honors.

1966 After a court fight, George Allen is released by George Halas from his assistant coaching duties with the Chicago Bears to become head coach of the Rams. NFL and AFL merge in spring. Bob Kelley, "Voice of the Rams" since the club's beginning in 1937, dies in September. Team finishes 8-6. Rams defense has three players named to first All-Pro—Merlin Olsen, Deacon Jones and Maxie Baughan.

1967 After 17 years on Beverly Boulevard, club moves to new building on Pico. Training camp is also moved to California State College at Fullerton after five years at Chapman College in Orange. Equipment manager Bill Granholm leaves club after 18 years to take position in league office. Don Hewitt begins 29-year tenure as equipment manager. Rams record first unbeaten preseason in history with six wins, including victories over first-ever AFL opponents, San Diego and Kansas City. Team completes finest win-loss season ever with 11-1-2 league record to win Coastal Division Championship, the first title of any kind since 1955, then loses to Green Bay 28-7 in Western Conference Championship Game. George Allen receives NFL Coach of Year honors by Sporting News. Repeat winners Deacon Jones, Merlin Olsen and Maxie Baughan are joined by newcomers Charlie Cowan and Eddie Meador on All-Pro team. Jones establishes NFL record with 26 sacks and becomes first defensive lineman to post 100 solo tackles in a single season.

1968 After playoff win over Cleveland in January, team finishes regular season with 10-3-1 record, second in Coastal Division to Baltimore's 13-1 mark. Attendance is over one million for second straight year and Ram defense sets new 14-game NFL record for fewest yards allowed. On Dec. 26, Allen is dismissed as head coach, but is re-hired two weeks later. Deacon Jones is named NFL Defensive Player of Year for second straight season after registering 24 sacks. Jones, Merlin Olsen and Eddie Meador receive All-Pro honors.

1969 After 20 years with the Rams as a player, general manager and assistant to the president, Elroy Hirsch leaves club to become athletic director at the University of Wisconsin. He is replaced by Public Relations Director Jack Teele, and John Sanders becomes Assistant General Manager. Team wins Coastal Division with 11-3 record before losing to Minnesota in Western Conference title game, 23-20. Quarterback Roman Gabriel is unanimous choice as the NFL's Most Valuable Player. Bob Brown, Charlie Cowan, Tom Mack, Gabriel, Deacon Jones, Merlin Olsen and Eddie Meador give Rams a team record seven All-Pro selections.

1970 Playoff Bowl victory over Dallas in January heads Rams toward their 25th year in Southern California. With the completion of the merger of the NFL and AFL, the Rams join San Francisco, Atlanta and New Orleans in the Western Division of the National Conference of the new 26-team National Football League. Rams finish second to 49ers with 9-4-1 record. George Allen's contract is not renewed. Deacon Jones, Merlin Olsen, Bob Brown and Eddie Meador are named All-Pro.

1971 On April 15, owner Daniel F. Reeves dies of cancer in New York. His longtime friend and business associate, William A. Barnes, becomes President and General Manager. Tommy Prothro replaces Allen. Playing the toughest schedule in the NFL, the Rams finish with an 8-5-1 record, second to 49ers in the NFC West. Linebacker Isiah Robertson is lone All-Pro choice.

1972 In a history-making move, Baltimore Colts owner Carroll Rosenbloom trades the Baltimore franchise to Robert Irsay in exchange for the Rams. Irsay had purchased the Rams from the estate of the late Dan Reeves. The transaction was completed and announced on July 14. Rosenbloom, the most successful owner in the NFL over the last two decades, brings with him to Los Angeles Don Klosterman, Rosenbloom's general manager in Baltimore. After five years at Cal State Fullerton, Rams move training site to Cal State Long Beach. After 6-7-1 season, all coaches are dismissed. Tom Mack and Coy Bacon are first team All-Pro choices.

1973 An observer in '72, Rosenbloom begins to make changes early in 1973, and they pay off quickly. His choice for head coach, former Detroit assistant Chuck Knox, leads team to 12-2 season, winningest in Rams history, and Knox becomes "Coach of the Year," Roman Gabriel is traded to Philadelphia and the new quarterback, former San Diego Charger John Hadl, is NFC "Player of the Year." Hadl is joined on All-Pro First Team by Harold Jackson, Joe Scibelli, Tom Mack, Jack Youngblood and Isiah Robertson. Rams win NFC West title, but lose in first round of playoffs to Dallas. Other changes introduced by Rosenbloom include return to blue and gold uniforms. Club returns to Cal State Fullerton for summer training.

1974 Carroll Rosenbloom's son, Steve, takes over as Assistant to the President. After 3-2 start, Rams trade John Hadl to Green Bay for five draft choices in bold move that stuns the football world. Hadl's backup, James Harris, becomes starter and leads team to 10-4 record, its second straight NFC Western title and its first playoff victory since 1951 (a 19-10 win over Washington) before the Rams bow to Minnesota, 14-10, in NFC title game. Merlin Olsen wins Bert Bell Trophy as NFL's Most Valuable Player. Tom Mack, Lawrence McCutcheon, Jack Youngblood, Fred Dryer, Isiah Robertson and Dave Elmendorf give Rams six All-Pro selections for second straight year.

1975 With defense allowing second fewest points in NFL history over a 14-game season (135), Rams win third straight NFC Western title by completing 12-2 season. Jack Youngblood is named NFC Defensive Player of Year and earns first team All-Pro honors along with Tom Mack and Isiah Robertson. After playoff victory over St. Louis, however, they bow to Dallas in the NFC Championship Game. The 34-8 record over the last three years is best in the NFL.

1976 Rams win NFC West title for fourth straight year with 10-3-1 record then beat Dallas, 14-12, for their first playoff victory on the road before 24-13 NFC title game loss at Minnesota. Quarterback injuries mar season and rookie Pat Haden becomes fourth different playoff QB in four years under Knox. Rams' 351 points is highest in NFC. Jack Youngblood, Isiah Robertson and Monte Jackson are named All-Pro. Merlin Olsen is invited to a league-record 14th Pro Bowl.

1977 Rams spearhead new Coliseum configuration which reduces capacity from 91,038 to 71,039. With Lawrence McCutcheon setting new club career rushing record of 5,523 yards, the Rams (10-4) roll to their fifth straight division title before 14-7 playoff loss to Minnesota in Coliseum. Isiah Robertson earns NFC Linebacker of Year award for third consecutive season. Larry Brooks and Monte Jackson receive first team All-Pro recognition. Following the campaign Knox resigns to take Buffalo Bills head coaching post.

1978 On Feb. 1, Rosenbloom hires George Allen but releases Allen after second preseason game. Ray Malavasi becomes head coach and leads club to 12-4 mark for the sixth straight division title (tying NFL record). Rams beat Minnesota, 34-10, in playoff but lose NFC title to Dallas. Pat Haden earns NFC Player of Year award. Jack Youngblood, Jim Youngblood, Dennis Harrah, Pat Thomas and Frank Corral give Rams five All-Pro players. Rams also announce move to Anaheim Stadium beginning in 1980.

1979 Carroll Rosenbloom dies April 2 and his widow, Georgia, becomes majority owner. Club moves to Rams Park in Anaheim, where offices and practice facilities are together. Despite multitude of injuries, team wins 7th straight division title to set NFL record, then beats Dallas (21-19) and Tampa Bay (9-0) in NFC Playoffs. Rams lose to Pittsburgh in Super Bowl XIV, 31-19. Defensive line is represented on All-Pro team by Larry Brooks and Jack Youngblood.

1980 With Anaheim Stadium's capacity set at 69,045, Rams sell out last six home games and finish with 11-5 record. Rams lead NFL in rushing for first time since 1957, gaining 2,799 yards. Rams set 15 club records and tie three others. Nolan Cromwell named consensus All-NFL and receives award as NFC Defensive Player of the Year. Rams enter playoffs as wild card and lose to Dallas, 34-13.

1981 Rams finish 6-10, missing playoffs for the first time since 1972. Nolan Cromwell and LeRoy Irvin named All-NFL. Irvin sets NFL record with 207 punt return yards in 37-35 win over Atlanta. Wendell Tyler rushes for 1,074 yards and ties Elroy Hirsch's club record of 17 touchdowns in a season. Rams sell out first seven regular season games at Anaheim Stadium.

1982 NFL players' strike wipes out seven games of the regular season schedule and the Rams finish last in the NFC with a 2-7 record. QB Bert Jones, acquired in draft day trade from Baltimore, misses last 5 games with a neck injury. In his place, Vince Ferragamo throws for 509 yards vs. Chicago, second highest in league history. Following the season Malavasi is dismissed.

1983 In one of the most dramatic turnaround years in NFL history, Georgia Frontiere begins by hiring former USC Coach John Robinson in February. Revamped front office engineers a dozen off-season trades. Eric Dickerson is drafted on the first round in April. Robinson installs new offense (single back) and new defense (3-4) while Frontiere signs all players on roster. Rams go 9-7 and enter playoffs as wild card team beating Dallas in Texas, 24-17, before losing to Redskins in Washington. Dickerson breaks NFL rookie rushing record (1,808 yards), sets five Ram records and is consensus All-Pro. Cromwell, Kent Hill, Jackie Slater and Dickerson make Pro Bowl. Robinson named NFC Coach of the Year.

1984 Rams make playoffs for second time in as many years after finishing with 10-6 mark. Rams host first ever playoff game at Anaheim Stadium before record crowd of 67,037 but lose to New York Giants in NFC wild card game. Again, Eric Dickerson is the offensive force behind the Rams' success as he rushes for 2,105 yards, breaking O.J. Simpson's NFL record of 2,003. Jack Youngblood sets Ram record by playing in his 201st consecutive game. Quarterback Jeff Kemp replaces injured Vince Ferragamo in Week Three and leads team to nine wins. Dickerson is named NFC Player of the Year and makes Pro Bowl along with Henry Ellard, Kent Hill and Doug Smith. Dickerson is joined by Bill Bain, Jim Collins and Henry Ellard on first team All-Pro.

1985 Rams season falls just one game short when they lose to Chicago Bears in the NFC Championship Game. The defense and special teams play prominent roles in 11-5 regular season. Rams defense stifles Minnesota on one-inch line to preserve 13-10 victory as time runs out in Week Five. Ron Brown electrifies Anaheim Stadium crowd by returning two kickoffs for touchdowns against Green Bay to tie NFL record in Week Twelve. Eric Dickerson misses first two games but returns to rush for 1,234 yards. he sets an NFL playoff record by rushing for 248 yards against Dallas in first ever playoff win (20-0) at Anaheim Stadium. Nine Rams make NFC Pro Bowl team: Ron Brown, Jim Collins, Gary Green, Dale Hatcher, LeRoy Irvin, and four offensive linemen, Dennis Harrah, Kent Hill, Jackie Slater and Doug Smith. Collins, Irvin, Hatcher, Brown, Vince Newsome and Henry Ellard receive first team All-Pro recognition.

1986 Rams make playoffs for fourth consecutive year after posting a 10-6 regular season record. Rams acquire rookie Quarterback Jim Everett from Houston in major trade with Oilers. Everett throws three touchdown passes in debut against Patriots and starts last five games including playoff loss to Washington. Eric Dickerson rushes for over 1,000 yards for fourth consecutive season (1,821) and surpasses former Ram running back Lawrence McCutcheon as the team's all-time leading rusher with 6,968 yards in only four seasons. Defense plays important role in Rams' success, finishing fifth in total defense in the NFL, yielding 304 yards per game. Seven Rams selected to Pro Bowl - Dickerson, Carl Ekern, Jerry Gray, Dennis Harrah, LeRoy Irvin, Jackie Slater and Doug Smith. Harrah, Dickerson, Slater and Irvin also garner first team All-Pro honors.

1987 Rams fail to make the playoffs for the first time in last five seasons while finishing with a 6-9 record. NFL players' strike shortens season by one game while three games are played with non-union players. Rams acquire six draft choices (three No. One's and three No. Two's over the next two years) from the Colts in blockbuster trade for Running Back Eric Dickerson. Charles White takes over for Dickerson and wins NFL rushing title by gaining 1,374 yards and is named to his first Pro Bowl as well as unanimous All-Pro. Ron Brown, Jackie Slater and Tom Newberry join White on All-Pro first team.

1988 Rams qualify for the playoffs for the fifth time in six seasons under John Robinson, who becomes the winningest coach in club history with 58 wins. Rams lose NFC Wild Card Game to Minnesota after finishing with a 10-6 record. Team features wide open offense as Jim Everett sets four Ram passing records and ties a fifth while wide receiver Henry Ellard sets a Ram record for most catches in a season with 86. Defensively, the Rams tie a club record with 56 quarterback sacks which leads the league. Rams have five of the top 47 choices in draft and select RB Gaston Green and WR Aaron Cox on the first round. Five players are selected to the Pro Bowl - Jackie Slater, Henry Ellard, Tom Newberry, Doug Smith and Jerry Gray. Five more make All-Pro - Ellard, Slater, Newberry, LeRoy Irvin and Irv Pankey.

1989 Rams finish regular season with an 11-5 record and qualify for playoffs as a wild card entry. Team posts road playoff victories over Philadelphia and N.Y. Giants before losing to San Francisco in NFC Championship game. Rams' 13 wins are the most since 1978. Jim Everett becomes the first player in club history to pass for over 4,000 yards (4,310), while receivers Henry Ellard (1,382 yds.) and Willie "Flipper" Anderson (1,146) are the first two receivers to gain over 1,000 yards in the same season. Anderson also sets NFL record with 336 receiving yards on 15 catches vs. New Orleans. Safety Vince Newsome tops defense with 89 tackles while Linebacker Kevin Greene registers 16.5 quarterback sacks. Jerry Gray, Kevin Greene, Tom Newberry, Jackie Slater, Doug Smith and Ellard make the Pro Bowl. Gray returns interception for a touchdown and is named the game's Most Valuable Player. Slater is named NFC Offensive Lineman of Year for third straight season and fifth time in career. Slater, Newberry, Greene, Gary and Mike Lansford are All-Pro first team picks.

1990 Henry Ellard, (most receptions with 412 and yards with 7,037), and Jackie Slater (most games played with 209) both set Ram records as the team posts a disappointing 5-11 record. Ellard and Willie "Flipper" Anderson also become first receivers in Rams history to have consecutive 1,000-yard receiving seasons, a feat only two other NFL teams have accomplished. Rams spoil 49ers attempt to break NFL record of consecutive wins by beating San Francisco at Candlestick, 28-17. Jackie Slater and Jim Everett represent the NFC in the Pro Bowl.

1991 Rams suffer through one of the most disappointing seasons in their history by finishing with a 3-13 record. The franchise loses a record 10 games in a row to finish the season. John Robinson resigns as head coach prior to the club's last regular season game. Tackle Jackie Slater becomes the first player in Ram history to play 16 seasons. Rams fail to have a player named to the NFL Pro Bowl for the first time since the game's inception in 1950. Versatile Robert Delpino earns first team All-Pro honors as receiver-back.

1992 Rams hire former head coach Chuck Knox (1973-77) as head coach, replacing John Robinson. Rams select DT Sean Gilbert, from the University of Pittsburgh with third choice in the first round. By doubling its victory total from the previous year Los Angeles finishes 6-10. Rams deal eventual Super Bowl XXVII champions only loss at home 27-23 and set club record by overcoming a 24-point deficit in 31-27 win at Tampa Bay. Kevin Greene is named to All-Pro first team.

1993 NFL and Player Association representatives agree on a new free agency system for players with five years or more experience. Rams name Jim Everett and Sean Gilbert as transition players, giving Los Angeles the first right of refusal once their contracts expire. Rams select RB Jerome Bettis, from the University of Notre Dame with the 10th pick in the first round and he earns rookie of the year honors after rushing for 1,429 yards (2nd in NFL) including 212 yards at New Orelans in 23-20 Rams' victory. Bettis and DT Sean Gilbert, who led team with 10.5 quarterback sacks, become first Rams since 1990 to appear in Pro Bowl. Bettis becomes only second player in team history to win Rookie of the Year honors. Both Bettis and Gilbert receive first team All-Pro accolades.

1994 Rams endure an active off-season of change in which club signs several free agents, including QB Chris Miller of Atlanta and DT Jimmie Jones of Dallas, and trades QB Jim Everett. Rams trade down in draft and have 10 choices in first six rounds and seven in first three. Auburn T Wayne Gandy is club's first choice off the field on May 3, Rams exercise a clause in their lease with city of Anaheim that allows the club to terminate lease within 15 months. Rams become first team ever to shutout Joe Montana with 16-0 win over Kansas City at Arrowhead Stadium. Team suffers its fifth consecutive losing season after dropping final seven games. Jerome Bettis finishes with 1,025 yards and earns second Pro Bowl invitation, becoming first Ram player to do so since Jackie Slater in 1990. Chuck Knox is relieved of his coaching duties at end of season.

1995 Frontiere moves franchise to St. Louis after 49 years in southern California. NFL owners approve teams's relocation effort with 23-6-1 vote on April 12, bringing NFL football back to St. Louis after eight year absence. League owners originally block proposed move with 3-21-6 vote on March 15. Rams hire Steve Ortmayer as Vice President for Football Operations and former Oregon coach Rich Brooks as 19th head coach in team history. After signing several free agents, including LB Carlos Jenkins, CB Anthony Parker and QB Mark Rypien, Rams make Florida DE Kevin Carter their number one draft choice.

RAMS OVERTIME GAMES

The Rams have played in 12 overtime games, 11 in the regular season and one in the playoffs, since the NFL adopted the extra period in 1974. They are 6-5-1 overall and one of only six NFC teams with a winning record in overtime games. The Rams currently have the longest consecutive game streak in the NFL without an overtime at 76. They last played an overtime game against Cincinnati on 10/7/90.

1995 ST. LOUIS RAMS ON RADIO

KSD-AM (550) and FM (93.7) Stereo, enters it's first season as the flagship radio station for Rams National Football League broadcasts. KSD will originate all 20 pre-season and regular season games broadcast across "The St. Louis Rams Radio Network," consisting of almost 30 stations in six states.

The new play by play voice for the Rams' inaugural season in St. Louis is Gary Bender, while formerRams wide receiver Jack Snow adds his color commentary from a players perspective for the fourth season. Contributing with sideline reporting during the game in his first season is Frank Cusumano.

Live post-game locker room interviews with players and coaches follow each game. KSD will have a two hour pre-game and post-game report for each game hosted by Mike Bush and Steve Schlanger. KSD's coverage continues during the week with special programming including: the Rams Daily Reports, and the weekly Rich Brooks call-in show on Tuesday evenings.
